

Allan Feldman

STUDENT OF THE MONTH

Los Altos High School

September 2021

Senior

Los Altos High School is proud to recognize Allan Feldman as our September Student of the Month. It is an honor to celebrate Allan and his accomplishments throughout his time at Los Altos High School.

Allan is very involved at Los Altos High School, with one of his major commitments being a writer for the school newspaper, The Talon. He has been involved in journalism for three years - holding places in New Media Lit and the Talon. He not only loves writing but the process of interviewing, finding sources, and getting information to people in a timely fashion. Using his skills from both New Media Lit and the Talon, Allan has brought a multimedia aspect to the class, documenting news using videography along with writing. He wants to maintain an aspect of journalism in college, with interests in getting involved with the school publication or joining a journalism club. He is also an editor for CTeen Connection, a Jewish publication written by teens around the globe.

Allan is also the president of two clubs on Campus: Jew Crew and Peace in the Middle East. He enjoys both because he feels they go hand in hand, with debates and discussions about conflicts in the middle east, such as the Palestinian and Israeli conflict. He started the Peace in the Middle East club last year to create a space to learn and discuss middle eastern conflicts and culture. They have hosted various guest speakers over Zoom, including professors and PhD students from Stanford University and UC Berkeley.

Additionally, Allan has played for the school soccer team for the past three years, which ties to one of his most significant commitments outside of school; he co-founded an organization called AE Soccer Training with another Los Altos High School student. Here, he has coached approximately 30 kids and has raised over $6,000.00. They are putting the money they've raised towards funding a first-ever girls' soccer league in East Palo Alto, which will start in late October.

Outside of all this, Allan enjoys long road bike rides around the Bay Area. He also enjoys volunteering at his local synagogue, Chabad Palo Alto, and spending time with his friends and family.

Congratulations, Allan Feldman, for receiving September Student of the Month and for all of your tremendous success and dedication to give back to your community and school. We can't wait to see all of the amazing accomplishments coming your way in the near future!
